Referee Comment	" Sweetness has been with our family for 3 years, she has been an excellent nanny to my two daughters and she is always smiling, full of energy and positive. She has loved my children like her own and for that I will always be grateful. She is very good at managing her time throughout the day and finding balance between housework and looking aftr children. we are sad to see her go as both children are now is school and we can no longer afford to keep her."
